ABOUT THE ROYAL HAWAIIAN HOTEL

Extracted by: Historic Hawaii Foundation

The Royal Hawaiian opened on February 1, 1927. At a cost of $4 million dollars, it was the largest construction project in the Pacific at that time.

The architects were the New York based premier hotel designers, Warren and Wetmore, who were known for their other hotels including NYCs Ritz-Carlton, Biltmore, Belmont, Vanderbilt and Chatman hotels.

Today, the Royal Hawaiian is owned by Kamehameha Schools, a trust founded by Bernice Pauahi Bishop, heir to the Kamehameha dynasty, to support a school for the children of Hawaii.

The hotel itself is owned by Kyo-ya Hotels and Resorts, which leases the land from Kamehameha Schools. It is managed by Marriott.
